ALAN RAWSTHORNE

Three French Nursery Songs

for Medium Voice and Piano.

These little songs have traditional French texts and English translations, and are easy to sing and accompany. "Most attractive and original . . . unaffected, dainty pieces"—Musical America. "Delightfully French in their delicacy of touch"—The Star. "The gaiety and rather innocent waywardness of these settings make an immediate appeal."—Music & Letters.

Piano Music by JOHN IRELAND

Sarnia: An Island Sequence	s. d. 5 0
----------------------------	--------------

The most recent addition to the treasury of Ireland's many piano works, 'Sarnia' consists of three extended pieces: 'Le Catiroc', 'In a May Morning' and 'Song of the Spring Tides'. It has been performed by eminent pianists, including Clifford Curzon and Kendal Taylor.

Green Ways:

Three Lyric Pieces	... 3 6
--------------------	---------

1. The Cherry Tree; 2. Cypress; 3. The Palm and May (also published as separate pieces, 2s. each). The first two are of only moderate difficulty, the third requires a good technique.

Preludes	3 0
----------	--------	-----

1. The Undertone; 2. Obsession; 3. The Holy Boy; 4. The Fire of Spring. These rather early pieces of Ireland's retain their wide popularity; the 'Holy Boy'—technically quite easy—has become famous. (Also published as separate pieces, 2s. each)

Rhapsody	3 0
----------	--------	-----

A powerful and deeply-felt concert work.

Leaves from a Child's Sketchbook	2 0
-------------------------------------	--------	-----

A set of easy teaching pieces.

Epic March	3 0
------------	--------	-----

Ireland's recent orchestral work in a playable piano transcription.
