By far the most inclusive set of primary documents and articles in the field ever published, this unique volume contains over 100 selections. Virtually all pieces appear in their entirety, and a significant number would be difficult to obtain elsewhere.

The volume draws upon the literature of history, medicine, philosophical and religious ethics, economics, and sociology. A wide range of topics and issues are covered, such as law and medicine, truth-telling by the physician, research, population policy, genetics, abortion, dying, and individual rights in medical care. The selections span the centuries, beginning with material from the works of Hippocrates, continuing through Thomas Percival, John Stuart Mill, and Claude Bernard, down to modern commentators like Henry K. Beecher, Walsh McDermott,

David L. Bazelon, Paul Freund, H.L.A. Hart, John Rawls, Paul Ramsey, Richard McCormick, Rashi Fein, and Bernard Barber. The book has eight major divisions, beginning with sections on the ethical dimensions of the physician-patient relationship in history; the moral bases of medical ethics; and regulation, compulsion, and protection of the consumer in clinical medicine and public health. Each of these sections includes key essays that appear for the first time.

Cases that illustrate moral dilemmas are provided for discussion purposes. Each section is preceded by a succinct editor's introduction.

The editors have developed this text in graduate and undergraduate courses at Harvard University over the past six years. Stanley Joel Reiser directs the History of Medicine Program at Harvard Medical School. Arthur J. Dyck is professor of population ethics at Harvard Divinity School. William J. Curran is professor of legal medicine at Harvard School of Public Health.

SUBMISSION OF ARTICLES

The Editors encourage the submission of manuscripts on a wide range of medicolegal topics for publication in the JOURNAL. Acceptable subjects include health law and policy; legal, ethical, social, and economic aspects of medical practice, education, and research; health-related insurance; and other important or interesting subjects involving the relationship of the life sciences to the social sciences and humanities. The JOURNAL is interdisciplinary. Contributions from specialists in a variety of disciplines are welcomed. All materials should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief, American Journal of Law & Medicine, Editorial Offices, 454 Brookline Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts 02215.

GENERAL FORM: Manuscripts should be typewritten on one side of the paper only, with double spacing and liberal margins. Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate, i.e., an original and two carbon or Xerox copies. The title of the paper and the author's name and address should be given on a covering sheet.

ABSTRACT: A short abstract (normally not exceeding 200 words) succinctly summarizing the content of the manuscript should accompany the manuscript on a separate sheet. If the paper is accepted, the abstract will be published along with the manuscript.

REFERENCES: Footnotes to sources should appear in the text, numbered consecutively, and placed at the bottom of each page in numerical sequence or on separate pages at the end of the text. All footnotes should conform to A Uniform System of Citation (12th ed.), published and distributed by the Harvard Law Review Association, Gannett House, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138. Non-lawyers unfamiliar with this system should follow the citation form accepted in their field and the Editors of the JOURNAL will make the appropriate modifications if the paper is published.

ILLUSTRATIONS: Illustrations and tables accompanying manuscripts should be numbered, provided with suitable legends, and marked lightly on the back with the author's name. Authors should indicate on the manuscript the appropriate positions of tables and text figures. Special arrangements must be made with the Editor-in-Chief for color plates, elaborate tables, half-tone illustrations or extra illustrations, drawings, and photographs.

PUBLICATION LANGUAGE: English.

PROOFS AND AUTHOR REPRINTS: Because of time pressures, printer's proofs of articles accepted for publication will not be made available to authors. Thirty reprints of each article will be distributed to the author or divided among the authors if there are more than one.

RETURN OF MANUSCRIPTS: Upon request of the author and upon receipt of a suitable envelope stamped with adequate postage, the Editor-in-Chief will return to the author the original of any manuscript not accepted for publication.
